

MAKE YEAR 1 A GREAT ONE!

Recognizing and celebrating employees early in their career encourages strong connections with a lasting impact. Multiple recognition touchpoints throughout year one positively impacts the employee experience!

The first year of employment is crucial to establishing a positive, lasting connection with new hires. Developing an effective first year recognition strategy doesn't have to be hard. With years of experience delivering measurable results, Incentive Services will help you customize a strategy that is not only easy to implement, but really works. Here is just one example that delivers 7 positive recognition touchpoints throughout year one.

Let's connect to share more of our successful year one strategies!

